

The Carlyle Washington DC

July 28, 2010

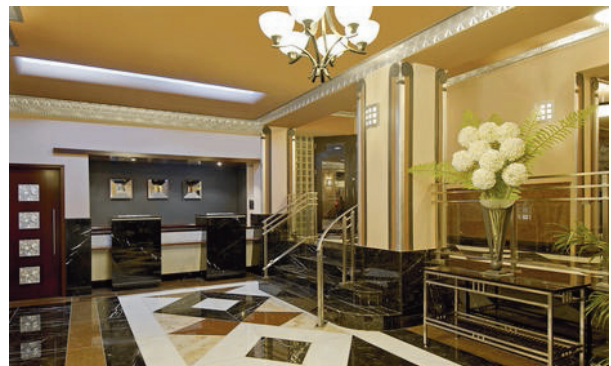

A personal favorite, situated just 3 blocks from the famed Dupont Circle fountain, the Carlyle Suites Hotel is in walking distance to some of Washington DC's most talked about neighborhoods and attractions such as Georgetown, Rock Creek Park, Embassy Row, and Adams Morgan. The art-deco décor was complimented tremendously by a warm and helpful staff.

The generous sized studio suites of the Carlyle Suites Hotel offers the perfect retreat when visiting Dupont Circle and downtown Washington DC. The spacious non-smoking studio suites combined with thoughtful amenities are the perfect fit when traveling on business, visiting family or simply escaping for a long weekend to Washington DC. Each of the 170 studio suites feature Tempur-Pedic beds and full service kitchens that attract off-site housing for university graduates, visiting professors, or families attending university graduation ceremonies at nearby Howard University, Johns Hopkins University or Georgetown University.

Washington DC has always been known for its monuments, but it is quickly becoming known for its dining and restaurants. Twist Dupont Restaurant and Lounge is the latest to join the ranks with a unique spin on American dining classics. The staff here at Elite Travel Consulting especially enjoyed the chef's lunch specials and desserts.

Catering to the business traveler, The Carlyle offers unlimited high speed wireless connectivity available at no additional cost to every guest. Also, during your stay at the Carlyle Suites Hotel, you will have free access to the Washington Sports Club facility with every overnight stay. Take advantage of the finest equipment, locker rooms and complimentary member classes as guests of the Carlyle Suites Hotel!

From business to leisure travel, overall The Carlyle is a great choice.
